On glamour: "My students live in a world where everything is glamorized, from the soda they drink to the cars they drive. When they meet me they realize that finally physics can be glamorous too. I hope I can empower my students, especially young women, to realize they can be glamorous and academically motivated at the same time."

Navy beaded "flapper" style dress by Patra Ltd., $200; Silver and crystal ring by Tivoli, $15.00; "Ice" sandals in silver by Michelle D, $49.99
