

Individual in Society

Quiz 10+11

April 8, 2008

From Readings for April 1st:

- 1) According to Winn, the difference in race between the US and the Caribbean islands is that:
- 2) According to Winn, a person in the Dominican Republic is labeled black if:
- 3) When Rafael Trujillo came to power in the Dominican Republic, according to Winn, he redefined his nation as:
- 4) According to Winn, Brazil has defined itself as a:
- 5) In Brazil, according to Winn, the elite encouraged mixing of races because:
- 6) In conclusion, Winn writes that race, class, and culture are:
- 7) Anderson writes that the image of the black male in the Village is the result of:
- 8) Two sociological factors that underlie the situation in which a black man in the Village finds himself are:
- 9) According to Winn, greetings between blacks in the Village:
- 10) Winn writes that in his concern with the immediate situation in an encounter with a white person, the black male:
- 11) Which of the following is NOT a cue that a black male in the Village can use to signify that he is not dangerous:
- 12) Because the situation in the Village encourages both whites and blacks to see those of the other color not as individuals but as representatives of their race, Winn concludes, the area:
- 13) What is affirmative action?
- 14) Jenkins argues that affirmative action policies should be continued because:

From Readings for April 8th:

- 1) According to Gans, all individualism, is in a sense:
- 2) According to Gans, the poor:
- 3) American popular individualism rose with:
- 4) Another factor in the rise of American popular individualism is:
- 5) Which one of the following, according to Marx, is NOT a reason inequality develops in society:
- 6) Another cause of inequality is social conflict, which Marx argues occurs due to:
- 7) According to Charon, prestige is:
- 8) In “Why Are People Unequal in Society?” Charon concludes that:
- 9) According to Charon in “Why Do We Believe What We Do?,” culture is:
- 10) According to Charon, two concepts vital to human perceptions of reality are:
- 11) According to Charon, reality is created by:
- 12) According to Charon, why do we believe what we do?