Promoting Healthy Development in At-Risk Mothers and Children: Lessons from Two Decades of Longitudinal Research

Jaelyn Farris, Ph.D.

Date: Friday, February 5, 2010

Time: 10:00 to 11:30 am

Location: FIU Modesto Maidique Campus, DM140

Jaelyn Farris received her Ph.D. in Developmental Psychology from the University of Notre Dame in 2007. She currently works as a Postdoctoral Fellow at Notre Dame, where she studies the interrelated topics of parenting and child development. Prior to her time in South Bend, Dr. Farris earned an M.S.Ed. in Community Counseling from Youngstown State University and a B.S. in Psychology from Allegheny College. Her experiences as a therapist provided the foundation for her primary research interest in the development of Conduct Disorder among at-risk children and adolescents.

All are invited to attend.
