What is Sigma Tau Delta?

STD is an International English Honor Society. Its purpose is to bestow distinction upon undergraduates, graduates, and scholars in academia, as well as upon professional writers you have recognized accomplishments in linguistic or literary realms of the English language.

Through the chartering of chapters on the campuses of more than six hundred colleges and universities throughout the United States, STD affords exceptional students in the field of English an opportunity for furthering culture, for formulating ethical principles, for developing skills in creative and critical writing, and for fostering a spirit of fellowship.

Student members of STD may gain prestige through publication in The Rectangle and may achieve international recognition through annual awards and scholarships. Association with eminent persons in the profession of English is accorded students at the regional conventions and at the international convention.
