July 22, 2003

Dear Visitor:

Every year the students of the Weekend BBA Program at Florida International University College of Business come together to serve our community. This year we are united in an enormous effort to provide the required school supplies to more than 400 South Florida children who reside in low-income families or at homeless shelters through our “Tools For School” project.

In 1989 at the UN Convention on Child Rights it was stated that, "Mankind owes to the child the best it has to give," and to do so, we are seeking your financial assistance. Your contribution will ensure that every needy child in our community will receive the proper tools for learning.

Donations may be mailed to:

Florida International University
Weekend BBA Program
Attn: Sonia Gonzalez
University Park, BA 215
Miami, Florida, 33199

Please make your check or money order payable to the FIU Foundation. For more information on the WBBA “Tools for School” project you may visit our website at: http://www.fiu.edu/~tls4schl. If you or your employees would like to participate in this or any other Civic Engagement project within FIU’s College of Business Administration please go to: http://cba.fiu.edu/service/index.htm.

Your support is extremely appreciated!

Respectfully,

[Signature]

Robert H. Hogner, PhD
Associate Professor of Business Ethics/Management
Honors College Director of Community Service

*Deductions for tax purposes should always be checked with your tax professional.