SYLLABUS for SYD 3811:
Sociology of Women

Description: This course is one of the women’s studies courses focusing on the lives of females from a sociological perspective. We begin with the history of women’s studies, focus on girlhood, and then proceed through issues of concern to women, including relationships between mothers and daughters. Are we in a “post-feminist” age? This course will help us answer that question.

Required Readings: The following texts can be purchased at the university bookstore, local book stores or on-line and they are all in paperback:

Recommended Readings:

Requirements: Successful completion of the following assignments done on time (assignments turned in late will not be accepted; no make-ups):
  1. In class oral presentations of the required readings (4 worth 5 points each, 20 points total). If you are not here the date your reading is due, you will not receive points. Students can earn extra credit with extra presentations.
  2. Essay exam #1 on the readings (3 questions @ ten points each, 30 points)
  3. A research project with a research bibliography presented to the class (20 points)
  4. Essay exam #2 on the readings (3 questions worth ten points each, 30 points)
Final points add up to 100 possible (20+30+20+30=100)

NOTE: I do not accept emailed assignments. You must turn in a hard copy in class or in my box in the sociology department on the due date.
