

DO YOU NEED AN ELECTIVE COURSE?

SPA 312-1600 Peninsular Culture

“COURSE TAUGHT IN ENGLISH”

FALL 2009

A survey of the most important aspects of Peninsular (European) Spanish culture, including geography, history, folklore, social customs of the people of Spain, such as: cooking a paella, listening and watching videos of cante hondo, and gypsy music inherited from the Indian and Muslim or Arab influence in Spain, going for a meal to a Spanish restaurant and flamenco show. You will watch films for Spanish film makers in English to learn about their culture and myths.

Note: This is a 3 credit course that can count as an elective or for the Spanish minor..

Days & Times: MWF, 11:00 AM - 11:50AM

Room: WLAC17 114 (Lehman Building)

FLORIDA MEMORIAL
UNIVERSITY

CONTACT INFORMATION:
DR. ZOILA CLARK

Phone: (305) 623-1412
E-mail: zoilyova@yahoo.com

