

Hispanic-American Culture & Civilization

SPA 313

Department of Humanities

A survey of the most important aspects of Hispano-American culture, including geography, history and a study of the folklore and customs: food preparation, songs, dances, rituals, revolutions, theater, writings, field trips to museums and Hispanic events in Miami.

Spring 2009

Professor: Zoila Clark Dates: MWF Time: 11:00am - 11:50am

Department of Humanities

Florida Memorial University
Department of Humanities
15800 NW 42 AVE, JJF 115
Miami Gardens, Florida 33054

Phone: 305-626-3128
Fax: 305-626-3189
E-mail: zoilyova@yahoo.com

Get A
MINOR IN SPANISH

This course counts DOUBLE

*As a Foreign Language Requirement
As a course for a minor in Spanish*

Course taught in ENGLISH

- ◇ Focus on Latin culture, not language skills.
- ◇ Intermediate Spanish Level Skill Required.
- ◇ Readings & Films in English & Spanish.
- ◇ Materials will be put on course reserve.
Main textbook in English, available in the bookstore.